DETAILED ACTIONTerminal Disclaimer

The terminal disclaimer filed on January 26, 2004 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application that would extend beyond the expiration date of US Patent Application No. 09/609,846 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 19-25, 27, 28 and 30-36 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As to claim 19, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious a process for analyzing samples including: bringing the sample into contact with a first sensing area of a platform, said platform comprising an optically transparent substrate having a first refractive index and a thin, optically transparent layer on one side of the substrate with a second refractive index greater than the first, said platform incorporating therein multiple corrugated structures comprising periodic grooves defining multiple sensing areas such that coherent light incident on said platform is diffracted generating an enhanced evanescent field at the surface of the sensing areas, in combination with the rest of the limitations of claim 19.

As to claim 31, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious a method of analyzing a sample including: bringing the sample into contact with a first sensing area of a platform, said platform comprising an optically transparent substrate having a first refractive index and a thin, optically transparent layer on one side of the substrate with a second refractive index greater than the first, said platform incorporating therein multiple corrugated structures comprising periodic grooves defining multiple sensing areas such that coherent light incident on said platform is diffracted generating an enhanced evanescent field at the surface of the sensing areas, in combination with the rest of the limitations of claim 31.

Art Unit: 2877

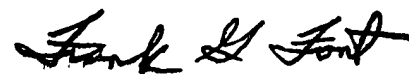

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
